

(Washington, DC)— United States Congresswoman Gwen Moore today met with Wisconsin Governor Jim Doyle (D), ahead of his meeting with President Obama this afternoon on the nation's health care system. Rep. Moore talked to the Governor about various policy issues in advance of his White House meeting.

"It is always a pleasure to get a visit from Governor Doyle," Rep. Moore said.

Photographs are available for publication:

Congresswoman Moore greets Gov. Doyle in her Washington D.C. office.

Congresswoman Moore discusses various issues with Gov. Doyle ahead of his White House

Congresswoman Moore discusses various issues with Gov. Doyle ahead of his White House